Dear Xavier,

I refer to the below correspondence that you sent to Catherine Myers on 8 June 2021. In that letter, you state that "Crown will provide the Commission with other documents that it produces to the RCCOL on this matter", as well as anticipating "being in a position to shortly share with the Commission the circumstances of how the non-disclosure came out".

Although I am aware Allens have had a discussion with our lawyers (DLA Piper), I want to ensure that this is still within your consideration and query when we might expect provision of those documents or relevant information?

Regards,
