Dear Confidential

We note you are awaiting a response from the Casino in relation to the Lease.

As for the liquor licence, there are two options for the sale of liquor for off premises consumption –

1. A Packaged Liquor Licence. This is the type of licence usually held by a bottle shop or licensed supermarket. Licensees with Packaged Liquor Licences can only sell liquor for off premises consumption although they may offer free tasting at the premises as part of this type of licence. The range of alcohol that can be sold under a Packaged Liquor Licence is not restricted.
2. A Renewable Limited Licence. This type of licence authorises the supply of liquor in circumstances where the scale and scope of the supply is substantially restricted or limited. I understand that you plan on selling Chinese wine at the premises. Is that the only type of alcohol you anticipate selling? Is there any further limit to the scope of product supplied (ie will it be a particular type of wine or wine from a particular region?)

Once we have further information about the extent to which the scope of the product to be supplied may be limited, we can advise you as to whether you might qualify for a Renewable Limited Licence or whether we recommend applying for a Packaged Liquor Licence.

If you plan on trading after 1am you would need to apply for a late night licence however the Minister for Consumer Affairs, Gaming and Liquor Regulation has published guidelines restricting the grant of new late night liquor licence in Melbourne with limited exceptions, none of which would assist with this licence application.

Please call if you have any questions.

Kind regards,
